Revision of the English Bible.

The convocation of Westminister in England, a very large body of English Episcopalians, have determined on a revision of the English Scriptures, for the purpose of correcting such inaccuracies of translation as may be found, and omitting certain old obsolete words that have changed their meaning in the lapse of time. The undertaking is a noble one, and, it seems, ought to be encouraged by all enlightened Christians and people whose aim is for truth. The present version, in its general style and phraseology, is to remain unaltered. The English bishops and clergy in this movement have shown great liberality by inviting eminent scholars of different denominations to assist in the revision; among them three who are of the Baptist denomination.

We hope they will not show a political party spirit and misrepresent any words to suit local prejudices, as did certain Bible revisers of the abolition radical school of England. One would have thought that men so eminently pledged before Heaven to give in English the actual and true meaning to every word of the original Greek, would have done so whether it bore on popular prejudice or not, but our Northern revisers sympathized so strongly with the anti-Southern feeling of the North, that they could not forbear the opportunity of perverting the meaning of some words for the purpose of ministering to that feeling of hostility, or else they wanted the moral courage to act out their professions. Alas for human weakness! But the Christianity of the North has been so long politically associated, that you cannot rely on the accuracy of their best men, when you touch their political prejudices. We are satisfied that the true origin of the late war is in the conduct of the revisionists of the North in misrepresenting the Bible, and many facts connected with our late Southern institution. We go farther, and say without the fear of successful contradiction, that if the English New Testament had been revised fifty years ago, and every word of the original Greek rendered according to its exact meaning in plain English of the time, that there would have been no secession and no war between the North and South. Nations and peoples pay a fearful price for their hostility to the Bible, and for their traditional prejudices. We believe that if the word of God was really permitted by popular prejudice to "have free course," it would be "glorified" in preventing wars and strife, and giving peace on earth. Who can doubt it? But the Pharisees of these times on some subjects make it void, as they did of old, by traditions. They did so with a vengeance, in firing the Northern mind with all sorts of war upon the late Southern States of America.

Judge Carpenter Candidate for Governor of the Union Reform Party.
Judge CARPENTER was nominated for Governor by the Union Reform Party, lately met in Convention in Columbia. The Judge is a man of high order of ability, and a regular Republican. He has shown high qualities as a Judge, and on his resignation lately, was complimented and eulogized by the talented Bar of Charleston for the excellent manner in which he has discharged his duties as a Judge. His resignation of the important office he has filled so well, and acceptance of the nomination for Governor, proves that he is in earnest in his efforts to reform the abuses of the present State Government. He is one of the best speakers in the State, and intends to canvass it thoroughly between this and the October election. We are anxious to have him visit Greenville, and when he does so, we hope there will be a large turn out of all parties and classes to hear him. Gov. SCOTT declines to make any more speeches; and it said, he is afraid to meet Judge CARPENTER on the stump. This is a pity. The people, white and colored, ought to have a fair opportunity of comparing the two men, and to hear from them directly of the measures and policy they are disposed to advocate. As yet, there is no excitement in this section as to the coming elections, but presume that the popular interest will be fully aroused in the course of the summer.

Great Meeting in Edgefield on the 2d July.
There was a very large gathering in Edgefield on the 2d instant, to celebrate the 10th Anniversary. Speeches were made by Major JOHN BACON, S. L. HOZE, M. C., and General M. C. BUTLER, in reply to him, in which he used harsh and abusive language. Judge R. B. CARPENTER was then introduced, and made a telling speech. Col. DELANEY (colored) next spoke, followed by Gen. WORTHINGTON, ex-member of Congress from Nevada. The crowd then partook of a barbecue.

The correspondent of the Charleston News closes the account with the following comments, after stating, on "excellent authority," that the Scott Party lost five hundred votes by the day's proceedings: "For the first time in their lives, the colored citizens of Edgefield have had an opportunity of hearing both sides of a question intelligently discussed, and have already formed their judgment accordingly."

Runners of War in Europe.
Gen. PRUM has recommended Prince HENRI ZOLLERN, of Germany, for the Spanish throne, and the Cortes are to decide the question. As the Prince is connected with the Prussian interest, the French are fiercely excited on the subject, and threaten war against Spain and Prussia if said Prince is elected king. Prussia has officially disclaimed any connection with the movement, but the French emperor still continues. We do not think, however, that those nations will manage matters so as to get up a war.

Invitations of Learning to the Up-County.

We are glad to see favorable notices in the Spartanburg-Spartan and Laurensville Herald, of the commencement exercises of Wofford College and of the Laurensville Female College. Six young gentlemen graduated in the former institution, and judging from the editorial in the Spartan the exercises were really interesting.

The proceedings of commencement day at Laurensville were no doubt equally entertaining. "Notwithstanding the College has at this time a large attendance," says the Herald, "the advanced classes are small, and the programme announced only two young ladies to graduate, Miss L. C. ANDERSON and Miss R. D. LEMMON. Professor J. R. RILEY, of Laurensville, presided over the composition of Miss ANDERSON, on 'Time—its use and abuse,' which was followed by the reading, by Professor DUPRE, of Wofford College, of 'Search after Truth,' by Miss LEMMON. These pieces were admirably written, doing much honor to the fair young authors, were well read, and the applause of the audience evinced their due appreciation. Diplomas were then conferred by the President upon these young ladies, in a neat and eloquent address."

Gen. HAMPTON was expected to address the assemblage on the occasion, but was prevented from being present on account of sickness in his family. Gen. A. C. HASKELL, who was also to deliver an address, spoke, which the Herald notices in a very complimentary manner. That paper is "glad to state that the institution under its able management, promises to take rank at an early day with the very first institutions of the land."

As we have heretofore done, we always speak with satisfaction and pride of our up-country institutions of learning, for we have some of the best in the land, offering advantages for the acquirement of education excelled by none. Wofford College for young gentlemen, and the Laurensville College for young ladies, deserve the careful consideration of those having youth to educate.

Judge Carpenter Coming to Greenville.
It will be seen by the list of notices which we publish, that Judge CARPENTER is coming to Greenville to address the people on Monday, the 25th of this month. He is the candidate of the Union and Reform Party for Governor of the State. He has been always of the Republican party, but is opposed to corruption and abuses. His resignation of his office of Judge for the purpose of canvassing the State, shows that he is deeply in earnest in assuming his present position. We hope he will be met by a full turn out of all classes and colors. He has the reputation of being one of the best speakers in the State. We have great curiosity to hear him.

Fifty-four Millions to be Added to the Paper Currency.
Congress has determined to authorize fifty-four millions additional National Bank bills to be issued in the Southern and Western States. The addition to South Carolina is to be about four millions. The New York Herald thinks that this expansion is too small to affect the price of gold.

Military Company Organized.
On Friday evening last, a meeting of a number of our white citizens was held in the Court House for the purpose of organizing a voluntary military company, whose services will be offered to his Excellency Gov. R. K. SCOTT. Officers were elected, and names enrolled. The whole number is eighty. The officers elected are:
Captain, A. D. HOKES; Lieutenant, J. W. CAGLE; 2d Lieutenant, S. C. CLYDE; 3d Lieutenant, G. G. WELLS.

Distressing Affair at Conwayboro.
Two young ladies, daughters of T. W. BARRY, Esq., Editor of the Holly News, Conwayboro, while bathing in a lake adjoining their father's residence, were drowned on the 2d instant. A colored woman, named given, who accompanied them, was also drowned, whilst, it is supposed, endeavoring to rescue them. The unfortunate ladies were aged respectively 14 and 16 years, the eldest a widow. Thus a father has been suddenly called to bear a severe and heavy affliction.

Hooked by a Cow.
An estimable lady of our City, whilst standing near the family cow, on Tuesday morning last, during the milking by a servant girl, was rushed upon and received several injuries from the horns of the animal. The cow was infuriated at a dog which chanced to stand near the lady. The injuries are not serious, only painful.

Trip to Europe and the Holy Land.
Dr. JOHN A. BROADBENT, of the Theological Seminary, is now in New York, and will start in a few days on a trip to Europe and the Holy Land. We do not know how long he will be absent.

Our friend, Dr. J. L. WOODBINE wishes to sell or lease his ten yard and mill; persons wishing them, should read his advertisement.

Ma. JOHN H. KLEINBICK, of Wallalla, advertises a valuable tract of land for sale, on which are valuable improvements. See notice elsewhere.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of Messrs. Clyde & Hovey, to be seen in another column. The Goods are fresh, and their friends would do well to call on them and examine.

Greenville and Columbia Railroad—Improvement.

By the extract below from the Columbia Phoenix, it will be seen that the new regime of the above corporation, are carrying out what the community were taught to expect of them. We publish the statement with great pleasure, and trust to see and hear of more such indications of progress.

"Palmer Passenger Car."—We had the pleasure, yesterday morning, of examining a new passenger car, which has just been completed for the Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company, by the Jackson & Sharp Company, of Wilmington, Delaware. It is a beautiful piece of work—the finest in the South, we verily believe. The car is of the monitor pattern, sixty feet long, and will comfortably seat sixty passengers. The ceilings are frescoed with panels of maple, relieved with walnut, ash and oak; the flooring alternate pieces of ash and walnut; the seats are covered with red and green plush, and are very comfortable—secured by a lock, so that it is impossible to turn them without a key. The great advantage of this car is the superior ventilation; the windows are broad and high, besides which, there are improved ventilators in the ceiling. Tasty bundles and umbrellas racks adorn the sides of this beautiful conveyance. Kerosene is dispensed with—candles being used in tastefully-ornamented frames, with globes. This car is an evidence of what the new company contemplate—a complete overhauling of the road, machinery, etc.—to bring it up to a first-class rating. President Bush and Superintendent Moore mean business. The new car will be run out in a few days.

Judge Bryan of the U. S. District Court.
His Hon. Judge GEO. S. BRYAN, of the United States District Court, arrived in this City on Saturday evening last, but he left on in the stage morning next for Flat Rock. He was accompanied by his family and a number of female friends, and will remain at the latter place for two or three weeks, returning here by the 1st of August, when his Court will be opened. Monday being the 1st of the month, Court will commence on that date.

New Potatoes in New York.
New Irish potatoes are selling in New York for $2.50 to $4 per barrel for those grown in Charleston, whilst potatoes from Bermuda sell at $6.50 per barrel. We would like to know the reason for the difference in value.

Rev. Prof. Crawford Toy, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.
The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on this learned gentleman, by Wake Forest College, at the recent commencement of that Institution. We know of no one more deserving such an honorary title.

The Address of the Executive Committee of the Union Reform Party.
The Committee have issued an able address to the people of the State, which we shall lay before our readers next week.

For the Greenville Enterprise.
Messrs. Editors.—If J. C. C. FEATHERSTON, Esq., of Laurens County, will consent to become a Candidate to represent the 4th Congressional District in the next Congress, he will be largely supported by many citizens. Mr. Featherston is a lawyer by profession, now quietly pursuing the business of a farmer. He is widely known as a young man of fine talent, a good speaker and conservative in his political views, and not laboring under any political disabilities. In fact, just the man we need now to represent us in Congress.

For the Greenville Enterprise.
Messrs. Editors.—I am much pleased with "Merchant's" proposition in the Enterprise of the 29th ult. I have spoken to my neighbors several times, lately, of this same plan of nominating candidates, and it seems to me to be the best way to get the voters interested and united. But is not the 11th too early for the meeting of the delegates from each Township? I think so short a time is proposed, that some of the Townships may not be able to hold a meeting, and therefore not be represented. Again, as it is only a suggestion of a single individual, some may not act on it. Allow me to suggest, therefore, that the Editors of the papers and other gentlemen of the City, consider this matter, and name a day for the meeting of delegates at the Court House. If, in your judgment, the meeting can properly be had next Monday, then say so; if not, give notice of some future day. It is very important that there should be a general understanding about this matter, so that we may make no unfortunate blunder, and thus give occasion for prejudice and opposition on the part of some.

Our Township is to have a meeting next Friday.
GLASSY MOUNTAIN.
July 4th, 1870.

Immigrants are said to be thronging into Texas, in overwhelming numbers. Every steamboat up the Red River is literally crowded with them, and a local paper says the number taking the overland route cannot be estimated.

Gen. Lee is now enjoining in Baltimore. W. T. McKim, Esq., of Orangeburg, died on the 8th inst.

A white child was recently found at the door of one of the citizens of Columbia. The assassination treaty with England has been ratified.

The Orangeburg News has received a full grown cotton-boll.

The Southern News speaks encouragingly of the crop prospects.

The Darlington Democrat also reports crops there in a thriving condition.

Julius Schuch, a young German, shortly arrived in Charleston, committed suicide the other day.

The Times also gives very favorable reports of the cotton and grain crops in Union County.

Henry Melver, of Chesterfield.
Y. J. Pope, of Newberry.
J. A. Hoyt, of Anderson.
Henry Barnes, of Edgefield.
Henry Buist, of Charleston.
James Byrd, of Charleston.
William Wallace, of Marion.
All communications to the Executive Committee should be addressed to the undersigned at Columbia. Col. William Wallace, J. B. Palmer and E. W. Seibles have been constituted a sub-committee at Columbia. Applications for speakers may be made to that committee. Regular appointments will be made, from time to time, by that committee, for public meetings in the several counties of the State, at which Hon. R. B. Carpenter and General M. C. Butler will address the people. The friends of the movement will please observe these appointments and make the necessary arrangements. Should the presence of these gentlemen be desired on any other occasions than those appointed by the committee, their attendance may be secured in the intervals of such appointments by addressing the Secretary.

The following appointments are announced for Hon. R. B. Carpenter and M. C. Butler to address the people:

Disturbance at Gadsden.
The Republican meeting at Gadsden yesterday ended quite tragically. There were no Ku Kluxes present, but only a little disagreement between opposing factions of the Radical persuasion. Yesterday was the day appointed for the meeting of the electors of the precinct of Gadsden to nominate delegates to appear in the county convention on the 22d instant. There were a large number of colored people congregated, two companies of colored militia, and a batch of distinguished orators from Columbia—Nash, Thompson, Wigg and others.

One Philip Epstein, a seafaring seaman, is said to have been anxious for a glimpse upon the globe, to the county convention, and being defeated, as he supposed, by the influence of Nash and a Columbia clique, mounted the speaker's stand, and, in the most vehement language, denounced the entire set, closing his remarks by applying the term of "damned liar" to Colonel Beverly Nash. Colonel Nash promptly and gallantly returned the insult by slapping Mr. Epstein from the stage. This was the signal for a general row between the friends of Epstein on the one hand, and Colonel Nash on the other. Knives were drawn and brandished, and a steady fire of right and left. The militia raised their bayonets and charged the infuriated crowd.

As far as we can learn, there was but one death wound inflicted. Geo. Chas. Bynum, a colored man, was pierced through the body by a bayonet in the hands of one of the colored militia. It is said that the leaders, Nash, Wigg and others, indignantly fled the field, and that the last sight of Epstein was as he disappeared over the adjacent corn field, closely pursued by a band of infuriated colored voters panting for his blood. Hopes are entertained that he might not be caught.

Col. Nash was shot in the back, and is now in the hospital at Columbia, 10th.

God helps those who help themselves, as the old adage says, and the STAMPER BITTERS and be cured of Dyspepsia, indigestion and Heartburn.

Richmond, July 9.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad to-day purchased from the State the Blue Ridge tunnel on that road, paying the State $600,000 in State bonds.

The conservative members of the Legislature, in session this evening, appointed a State Central Committee, and chose Raleigh T. Duffell, of Richmond, as Chairman.

Some opposition was made to Mr. Daniel on account of his supposed ultra Democratic views. Among the members of the committee are R. Kemper, ex-Confederate Gen. Albert Ordway, ex-Federal Colonel, Hon. John B. Baldwin, of Augusta, and Hon. James Freese, of Richmond.

Raleigh, July 9.
Governor Holden has declared Caswell county in a state of insurrection. His proclamation, published this morning, sets forth no reason for so doing. No outrages have been reported that the public knows of since the death of Stevens, two months since.

THE CITY PROPERTY NOT TO BE SOLD.—As is known, the Battery, Artisan Well, and other city property, levied upon by Sheriff Mackey, by virtue of an execution in the case of the executors of Geo. Gibson vs. the City Council, is advertised to be sold on Monday next.

By reference to our telegraphic columns, it will be seen that, on yesterday, at Columbia, before Associate Justices Willard, City Attorney Corbin, in behalf of the City Council, moved that the injunction heretofore granted by Judge Willard restraining Sheriff Mackey from selling the aforesaid property be continued in force. The executors were represented by Messrs. Phillips and Campbell. After arguments from the counsel on both sides, Messrs. Phillips and Campbell agreed to withdraw the levy, but announced that, although they would not insist upon the sale of the property at the time advertised, they would however renew the levy. Major Corbin then withdrew his motion to continue the injunction.—Charleston News.

COURT.—On Monday last, the Court resumed its sittings, Judge Vernon presiding. The Inquiry Docket was called, disposed of, and the issues are being tried. A large number of cases have been disposed of. This is the first call of the Court since the war. Cases involving the negro debt question are continued, to await the action of the higher tribunals.

On a note for the hire of a negro woman for the year 1860, under the charge of His Honor, the jury found for the plaintiff.

A case pending for damages against an agent of the Confederate Government for seizing a lot of molasses during the war, will be tried and will excite some interest.

The jury adopt the scaling practice, on old debts, and debts during the war, finding for one-half the debt and one-half the interest, interest computed to 1st January, 1861.

This action of the jury gives general satisfaction, and is founded in equity and justice. It is probable that the Court will sit until the end of the term, which includes the next week as a large number of cases remain on the law Docket, and the Equity Docket are heavy.

Judge Vernon's rulings give satisfaction, and he is pushing forward with the work before him with earnestness and patience.

[Laurensville Herald, 8th.]

The inhabitants of cities perceive things in their generalities; those of the Country in their individualities. A power of observation or description may be employed with much more effect in the latter sphere than in the former; though some facts appear to contradict the opinion, as several of our exemplars of the fine arts have been known to produce their works in cities. It is in the pharmacy, and the preparation of the "OLD CAROLINA BITTERS" best attests this rule.

The best "Worm Candy" in use is Wine-man's Crystallized Worm Drops!

COUNT THE COST.—A day's ride in almost any part of our country will show more than one practical illustration of the parable of the man who commenced to build his castle without counting the cost. Men often leave out of their calculations such little matters as doors, blinds, sashes, mouldings, &c., and hire and find no concern in the house which they have built. Remember, therefore, before building, to write to P. P. Toste, Charleston, S. C., the largest manufactory of doors, &c., in the Southern States, for an estimate of the cost of finishing.

TO TRAVELERS.—We learn from the Charleston News, that "Parties who propose to travel on the South Carolina Railroad are notified that hereafter, when they get on trains at stations where tickets are sold and neglect to purchase tickets, they will be charged the conductor's excess rate. But those getting on at stations where tickets are not sold, will be charged only the agent's rate by the conductor."
